

Workshops for parents

Comments from parents from previous courses;

"very good activities that I can do at home with my child."

"Helped make learning fun!"

"I have used the activities provided at home with my other children as well"

"It was fun to do this course".

"I really enjoyed the course, it helped me understand my child's needs, and help with his confidence".

These workshops have been written and are presented by Sue Kirkham, who is a Specialist Support Teacher at Knowsley Southern Primary Support Centre.

These workshops are free and take place over two Thursday afternoon sessions. During the sessions, the children work alongside their parents for part of each session.

Each parent also receives a pack of resources to use to help their child at home.

Workshops are funded by DCFS and are free to schools.
