

Artists

Frances Hatch is a plein-air artist who responds creatively to the landscape around her. Francis uses the natural materials available to her in the environment that she is painting in, for example soil and grass or rock pigment.

“I am a participant in a conversation with the land. I respond rather than impose – working with what is given.”

Anna Atkins was a botanist and photographer in the 1800s. She is considered as the first person to publish a book of photographs. She used cyanotypes to create blueprints of botanical specimens.

Key Vocabulary

Botanical Illustrator

Someone who draws plants from the environment.

Cyanotype

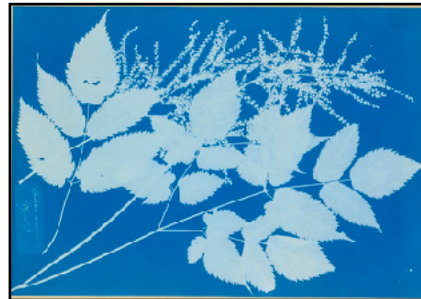

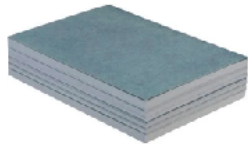

A process that involves light to transfer an image onto paper.

Botanist

The scientific study of plants

Tools

Sun Paper

Printing inks, rollers & polystyrene

Drawing Tools

Skills

I can work confidently of a range of scales and surfaces

I can experiment with different effects and textures

I can print using a variety of materials, objects, and techniques (e.g., imprinting, cyanotypes) related to a theme?

I can explore pattern and shape by creating designs for printing.

I can talk about the processes used to create a simple print.