

Artists

Sol Lewitt is an American artists who used sets of rules and instructions to create his drawings. He came to fame in the 1960's with his wall drawings but was also prolific in printmaking, photography, painting and illustrations. His "blueprint" for drawings were open to interpretation and could lead to different end results.

Rachel Parker is a surface pattern designer from Nottingham. Rachel loves to draw and takes inspiration from the world around her. Abstract shapes and flowers often feature in her designs, which use bold colours and repeated patterns.
