

Artists

Claire Harrup is an illustrator and printmaker based in the UK. Her work has been featured in magazines, books, products and packaging worldwide. She studied at Art School and trained as a teacher before pursuing her work in Graphic Design. She enjoys working to a set brief from clients as it allows her to explore different skills. Claire uses a range of techniques in her work including printmaking, digital art, collage, painting and drawing.

Key Vocabulary

Typography	The art of arranging letters and text so that they are appealing.
Net	A pattern you can cut and fold to make a 3D shape.
Graphic Designers	A creative process that uses art and technology to communicate ideas.

Tools

Acrylic Paints
Collage
Food Packaging
Scissors & Glue

Skills

- I can draw with increasing confidence developing my own personal style using line, tone, pattern, texture, form, and space.
- I can work with a range of media to discover, test ideas and experiment.
- I can control paint in different ways and show secure knowledge of making tints, tones, and shades.
- I can use different techniques, colours and textures when designing and making a piece of work.
- I can apply pattern and texture with confidence to decorate paintings.