

Artists

David Hockney was born in Bradford in 1937 and is one of the most important painters of the 21st Century. Hockney loves to paint vibrant landscapes as well as people and his dogs. Hockney has lived in London, California and currently resides in Normandy, France. The places he has lived are all very different and this variation can be seen in his painting through his colours.

Kitty Jones is an artist from Edinburgh. Her work uses drawing and print to capture the natural world around her. Much of her work is created outdoors and taken back to her studio to complete.
