

Artists

Henri Rousseau was a post-impressionist, self-taught artist famous for his paintings of jungle scenes and animals. He never visited the rainforests he painted.

John Dyer is a contemporary British artist. He is the artist in residence at the Eden project and official artist for the Earth with Earth Day. His work supports conservation and promotes protection of the Rainforest.

Key Vocabulary

Conservation	The preservation and protection of something
Colour Palette	A chosen set of colours to be used in a piece of work.
Mood Board	An type of visual representation that includes mages, drawings and text.
Foliage	The collective name for plant leaves.
Harmonious	These colours when placed next to one another place the strongest contrast.
Complimentary	A set of colours that are aesthetically pleasing.

Tools

Brusho

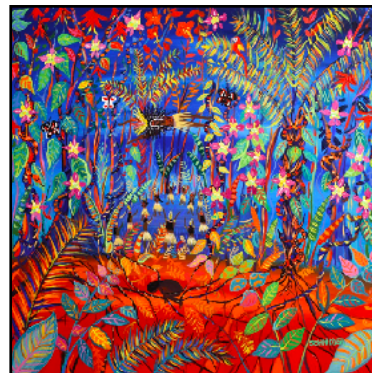

Crayons

Acrylic Paints

Drawing Inks

Skills

I can control paint to work in different ways.

I can show secure knowledge about making tints, tones, and shades.

I can use colour and tone to create depth and distance.

I can paint from observation, using tone, line, texture, and colour to express mood and feeling.

I can talk about complimentary and harmonious colours.

I can draw with increasing confidence developing my own personal style using line, tone, pattern, texture, form and space.