

Artists

Njideka Akunyili Crosby is an artist who was born in Nigeria but trained in America. Her artwork focuses on the different places and cultures she has experienced in her life. Many of her pieces include images of her family and friends.

Mike Barrett, also known as EMELBI, is a digital artist and photographer. He creates illustrations and digital graphics, often drawing people and faces. His work is recognised for being full of bright and bold colours.

Key Vocabulary

Portrait	A drawing, painting or picture of a person's face.
Proportion	When drawing a face this means making sure the features are the right size and in the right place i.e. the size and position of the eyes compared to the nose will affect how accurate the art appears.
Mood	The feeling expressed by a piece of art.
Identity	Who we are as individuals. It may also refer to how others perceive or label us.

Retrieval: What do the letters H and B stand for on pencils?
Which pencil is softer and darker?

--

Skills

- I can draw independently from a range of sources with control and intent.
- I can show refined shading techniques; hatching, stippling etc.
- I can use drawing to think, design and express ideas.
- I can understand and explore different drawing styles and purposes.
- I can use different paint confidently.
- I can demonstrate brush control and effectively use water and colour.
- I can plan and test colour combinations in preliminary work.
- I can paint from observation and imagination with intent.
- I can plan and create expressive collage artworks.
- I can add collaged to a painted, printed or drawn background.
- I can use a range of media to develop a personal style.
- I can create designs that incorporate painting and print.

Tools

Collage		Posca Pens
Watercolours		Graphite Sticks	